

London: The trophies are on show: the nationwide ballot has been counted, and Chris Chataway, a leading contender for the "Sportsman of the Year" honour, joins the presentation party. /s

~~And~~ Don Cockell, too, Britain's world-heavyweight title hope.

Ice skating champion Yvonne Sugden, with ~~trickling~~ magic in her tiny feet, and Stirling Moss ~~limited~~ - now a Mercedes driver. /s

The famous Rowe Twins, representing table-tennis. /s

And now - the trophy presentation to... Roger Bannister... the first man to run a four-minute mile ~~X~~ a worthy "Sportsman of the Year!" /

Then, the "Sportswomen" - Pat Smythe - the international show-jumper who won the title ~~last year.~~ /
last year's title.

The presentations were made by Lord Brabazon, who spoke of the famed Bannister acceleration. / SOUND

And in reply, the "Master Miler" offered grateful thanks. / SOUND

~~Finally, Pat Smythe shares the honour with her horses in offering New~~

~~Year~~ ~~AND~~ ~~SOUND~~ ~~AND~~ 2nd time WINNER, PAT SMYTHE, LOOKS BACK ON A HAPPY YEAR! /