

2195

Cosford-- Passing-out Review--

Jan 14th. '55.

Shropshire--- Air-Chief Marshal Sir Basil Embry- Commander Allied Air Forces, Central Europe, held a passing-out review of boy entrants at the R.A.F. School of Technical Training at Cosford.

The Parade- run entirely by the boys themselves- was under the command of Sgt B.E. Mitchell, whose mother was a proud spectator. (3)

The training of boy entrants began here in 1950, and their parents are encouraged to take a deep interest in their progress. SO A PROUD

MRS MITCHELL SEES SIR BASIL

~~Mrs. Sir Basil~~ the salute at the march past. Youngsters, learning to become efficient craftsmen in a vital service / SOUND