News fleshes from round-the-world

21st Jan. 55

Chataway wins

South Africa: At the Johannesburg Harriers Golden Jubilee Track Meeting, the guest competitor in the Three Miles Event was Chris Chataway, Britain's record-holder - who got away last in the field of nine.

2197

After the first half-mile, Chataway had moved up into second place behind John Roberts, the South African champion.

Near the Two Mile Mark and Chris sprints ahead - to set up a long lead. The last lap and time to glance back. The like all sporting visitors) Chataway felt the effect of the litting is 6,000 feet altitude X he want on to win by twenty yards.

Congratulations for Chris Chataway - who has since won in Cape Town and Durban.

rolio Boy

London Airport: Exchanging his crutches for the thrill of air travel, 14-year old Peter Wickham of Brighton is about to make his first flight. It was During a recent radio programme, that Peter expressed his desire to learn to fly. He then met Sir miles Thomas, the B.O.A.C. Chief - and this is the result - his first lesson in the air.

Naturally, one of Peter's heroes is that famous legless pilot, Douglas amply Bader, who has amptig proved that through faith, you can "reach for the sky"

Shah of Persia

America: The Holidaymaking in sunny Florida, the Shah of Persia tries his hand at water-ski-ing and proves himself an accomplished sportsman. Queen Soraya, too, enjoys the thrill of this graceful past-time - making a lovely, if somewhat unusual picture, of a Queen on holiday. The chief snag in water-ski-ing is when you've had enough - and that's the time when even a Monarch looks out of his depth.