

News Flashes--

Jan 28th. '55.

Kildare Blast--

Kildare-- To provide new road-making material, the historic Hill of Allen will soon be a mass of rubble, as engineers prepare to touch off 26,000 lbs of explosive.

And <sup>HERE</sup> ~~there~~ goes Ireland's biggest-ever "blast" SOUND.

Princess Margaret-

London-- On the eve of her <sup>departure</sup> ~~departure~~ for the Caribbean, Princess Margaret visited the headquarters of Queen Alexandra's Royal Army Nursing Corps, of which she is Colonel-in-Chief. /S

And at London Airport, last-minute clean-up and check-over for the B.C.A.C's Stratocruiser "Canopus" <sup>FOR THE ROYAL FLIGHT</sup> ~~in which the Princess will fly~~

~~will fly~~ So it's good-bye to winter, and 5000 miles away, a warm welcome ~~in~~ in sunny Calypso Land.

Nautilus-

America-- First pictures of diving tests by the "Nautilus" - (the world's first atomic-powered submarine), making naval history in the Atlantic. Able to remain submerged for an indefinite period, "Nautilus" carries her own air-supply and the means to purify it.

~~_____~~ The 3000 ton "Nautilus" - uranium-driven wondercraft of the century.