

London-- Suffragettes' Anniversary--

Feb 8th. '55.

London-- By the statue of their famous leader, Mrs Emmeline Pankhurst, suffragettes meet again to celebrate the 50th anniversary of the birth of their movement, which fought unceasingly for "Votes for Women". / S

Recalling those turbulent days, Museum pictures show Mrs Pankhurst's arrest outside Buckingham Palace.

~~_____~~ The suffragettes ~~_____~~ chained ~~themselves~~ themselves to railings ~~_____~~. Many were arrested, and this ^{is} how Mr Arthur Barrett ^{took his famous} photograph of the trials at Bow Street, ^{cocking the camera in his hat.} ~~_____~~ To lead weight to their cause, some ~~_____~~ carried catapults for window-breaking; Mrs Arneliffe Sennett carried this whip, and Lettice Floyd a cosh. ~~_____~~

Mrs Pankhurst leaves Gaxton Hall- the original London House where the suffragettes planned their first "raid". ^{NOV. 17} ~~_____~~ ~~_____~~ ~~_____~~ Miss Mary Richardson shows her medal- (won for hunger-striking, forcible-feeding and imprisonment), to ~~_____~~

~~_____~~ DURING THE 1913 DERBY ~~_____~~ Miss Davison threw her- self in front of the King's Horse ^{SEEN RUNNING THIRD FROM LAST} ~~_____~~ / S THE FOLLOWING YEAR. ^{THESE} inflexible pioneers rallied magnificently to the war effort, ^{AND} ~~_____~~ in 1918- ~~_____~~

"VOTES FOR WOMEN" BECAME women who won the vote.

A REALITY.

S. Keep down.