

Amateur Boxing

London: Heavyweights in action at the Albert Hall with Trevor Snell, the Welsh Champion ^(IN WHITE) conceding inches and ounces to Jim Robinson of Dublin representing Ireland against the Amateur Boxing Association, Robinson - (after taking a count) fought back strongly to try and square the match for the visitors. But Snell had done enough to get the decision. So the A.B.A. won by six bouts to four.

Wedding in Spain

Madrid: Wearing a gown of white taffeta and satin - Miss Joan Mallet was given away by her ~~walked with her~~ Father, Sir Ivo Mallet, (the British ambassador to Spain) - at her marriage to Mr Robert Farquharson of the Foreign Office. The ceremony was held at the Church of San Jerónimo and the happy couple will spend their honeymoon touring Spain.

Millrose Games

New York: Highlight of the Millrose Games - the Wanamaker Mile with ~~the~~ West Santee - (holder of the world indoor mile record) ^{OUT IN FRONT} ~~the~~ ^{THEN} Nielsen of Denmark ~~the~~ ^{PASSES} American champion, Freddy Dwyer, ~~AND THEN~~ ^{AND THEN} Santee.

But now watch the two Americans as they collide on the bend? The Flying Dane went on to set up a new world record for the indoor mile and was warmly congratulated by the Shah of Persia.

Quemoy

The Far East: With the withdrawal from the Tachens well under way, the heavily-defended island of Quemoy, (only eight miles from the Chinese ~~mainland~~ mainland) redoubles its guard, as the keypoint in the ~~Nationalist~~ Nationalist defence-scheme. Meanwhile, ships, crammed with refugees, arrive at Formosa. All civilians have now left the Tachens; but with the military withdrawal yet to come - there are anxious times ahead...
