

Amateur Boxing

London: Heavyweights in action at the Albert Hall with Trevor Snell, the Welsh Champion <sup>(IN WHITE)</sup> conceding inches and ounces to Jim Robinson of Dublin representing Ireland against the Amateur Boxing Association, Robinson - (after taking a count), fought back strongly to try and square the match for the visitors. But Snell had done enough to get the decision. So the A.B.A. won by six bouts to four. /

Wedding in Spain

Madrid: Wearing a gown of white taffeta and satin - Miss Joan Mallet was given away by her ~~walked with her~~ Father, Sir Ivo Mallet, (the British ambassador to Spain) - at ~~for~~ her marriage to Mr Robert Farquharson of the Foreign Office.

The ceremony was held at the Church of San Jerónimo and the happy couple will spend their honeymoon touring Spain. /

Millrose Games

New York: Highlight of the Millrose Games - the Wanamaker Mile with ~~sex~~ West Santee - (holder of the world indoor mile record) <sup>OUT IN FRONT</sup>

~~The final leg of the race was won by~~ <sup>PASSES</sup> American champion, Freddy Dwyer, <sup>THEN</sup> AND THEN <sup>THEN</sup> Santee.

But now watch the two Americans as they collide on the bend? The Flying Dane went on to set up a new world record for the indoor mile and was warmly congratulated by the Shah of Persia. /

Quemoy

The Far East: With the withdrawal from the Tachens well under way, the heavily-defended island of Quemoy, (only eight miles from the Chinese ~~mainland~~ Mainland) redoubles its guard, as the keypoint in the ~~Chinese~~ Nationalist defence-scheme. /

Meanwhile, ships, crammed with refugees, arrive at Formosa. All civilians have now left the Tachens; but with the military withdrawal yet to come - there are anxious times ahead... /

check

WHITE
Red vest ✓

military withdrawal ✓