Welcome Home ( continued)

At London Airport, affectionate family greatings and congratulations are awaiting a young Ambassador - who has so ably fulfilled the exacting duties of her first Commonwealth. Your. AT THE TAXIS IN- AND END OF THE LONG JOURNEY, CANODUS brough a porthole window - the Princess is greeted by a day that ig bravely to match the Caribbean sunshine. 20 From the shelter of the Royal Lounge - the welcoming Party crosses the tarmac, The Queen walking with Sir Miles Thomas, Chairman of B.O.A.C. In the party are Queen Elizabeth the Queen Mother and Prince Charles and Princess Anne - both making a surprise last-minute appearance. The Duke of Edinburgh is escorted by Mr Boyd-Carpenter, the Transport Minister At the aircraft - the Queen leads the family greetings - going aboard for that issig happy moment of re-union and to convey her own personal "Well Done" 25 Then - it's cheers for the Frincess - as she leaves the Stratocruiser to 13 15 receive official greatings. Amid the joy of homecoming, the Pilot, Canadian-born Captain Fair and the crew-members of the Canopus (whith who had flown the war Princess in both directions) are not forgotten. 9 An exciting moment for the Royal Children, as Sir Miles Thomas takes them to look at the Canopus - with their Father to give them a pilot's opinion of the stock claft.

2209

On this day of homecoming - Londoners joined the welcome as the Royal Cars made their way through the Capital GRESTINGS

Commonweelth SERVICE initici Baption . highest preise xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx fulfilment of ou important piece & Commonweath Same has won the higher provise. 12 459

Malcome Home !

The Bahamas: its Caribbean Journey over, the Britannia arrived at Namsau where gailly-decorated craft conveyed a message of hail and farewell to a much-loved moyal visitor. 28 on this final phase of the tour, the Frincess was received by the Earl of manfurly, the Governor of the Bahamas, amid a tremendous welcome that seemed to contain a heart-felt "thank-you for coming" on behalf of all the 44 West indian people. on the quayside, film star Yvonne de Carlo gar was among those who "snapped" a permanent souvenir of a memorable tour. 20 - ne rrincess Service at Christ Church Gathedral WHERE THE midering the service, Bishop of Nassau and the clergy bade farewell to a charming visitor who, by her presence, had brought fresh and any regeneration 31 encouragement to an destant Island people

2209