

London the British Film Academy honours the outstanding British pictures and screen artists of the past year.

The best British screenplay was "The Young Lovers" - and the co-writer, Robin Estridge accepts the award.

The best film illustrating one or more principles of the United Nations' Charter was "The Divided Heart" - and Director, Charles Crichton is honoured.

The presentations were made by Jack Buchanan.

Yvonne Mitchell was voted the best British actress and Donald Sinden ACCEPTED THE AWARD ON HER BEHALF.

Little Mandy Miller ~~accepted the award for~~ KENNETH MORE ~~FOR HIS PERFORMANCE~~ FOR HIS ACTING the Best British actor ~~in~~ in "Doctor in the House" fine films and performances that have pleased the Cinema-going public and after all, as long as they're happy, ~~nothing else matters.~~ That's the main thing.

~~was~~ The lovely Cornell Borchers ~~was~~ from Germany WAS VOTED THE

BEST FOREIGN ACTRESS. / SOUND.