

~~XXXXXXXXXX~~ Duke at Nice

France: Flying from Britain in a Viking of the Queen's Flight, the Duke of Edinburgh arrived at Nice Airport. ^{at brief stay} after ~~spending a few days~~ on the Riviera, at the home of his aunt, the Marchioness of Milford Haven, the royal Visitor sailed in the yacht "Britannia" to watch Combined Fleet Exercises in the Mediterranean.

Cambridge Crew

Rutney: Wintry conditions welcomed the Cambridge crew to the Tideway - to begin their final training, over the actual Boat Race course, for the 101st "Battle of the Blues".

The ill-wind was still blowing their way when Cambridge learned that ~~their~~ their President, D.K. Hill (who has chicken pox) was out of the race. The Light Blues have two Americans in their boat and will be one of the heaviest crews in the history of the race.

Egypt

Egypt: Recently, the Egyptian Government has been embellishing ^{the City} ~~of~~ of Cairo. Roads have been paved and ~~asphalted~~ ^{resurfaced} and it was decided to bring from Memphis, the Statue of ^{the Pharaoh} ~~Rameses~~ the Great - to adorn a public square. The forty-foot Statue (which is about three thousand years old) weighs eighty tons. ~~The ancient statue will weigh~~

New Olympic arena

~~XX~~
Australia: With the fight for the Ashes over, ^{preparation} a ~~major job of~~ ~~reconstruction~~ reconstruction has begun at the Melbourne Cricket Ground - to prepare for the 1956 Olympic Games.

^{This is} Already, the world's biggest cricket ground; with the addition of new stands, Melbourne will ~~accommodate~~ ^{specifies.} accommodate 125,000.

~~This is~~ ^{Here's} the model for the new Swimming Pool - the winning design, ~~entered by five young architects~~ in a National competition.

The Pool will form part of the ^{future} ~~Olympic Park~~ ^{where} ~~where~~ ~~such~~ such events as ~~swimming, cycling and soccer~~ will take place, as Melbourne prepares an arena - worthy of ^{great world} ~~Olympic contest~~ ^{contests}.