(2216)

Rioss in Brussels

Brussels: Over sixty thousand Belgian Catholics staged a sit-down strike to demonstrate against the Government's proposals to cut the subsidy to

Mounted Police soon stepped in to stop what might have developed into an ugly situation Are Clashes between police and demonstrators resulted in minor injuries to before calm was restored

Volcano

Hawaii: Terror struck at villagers living near the crater of Kilaues as a volcano exeption burst into activity after lying dormant for well over half-a-century.

Rivers of molten lava slowly consumed the countryside - while the cameraman had to run for his life before the white-hot tide.

As the deadly stream moved to the water's edge - great clouds of steam testified to the violence winners with the violence winners with the violence with th

California - Uranium Rush

California - The 1955 Gold Rush is on, as, under the watchful eye of the Atomic Energy Commission, prospectors rally for the "Uranian Stakes" at Bakersfield.

History has repeated itself; but instead of the Covered Wagon gold-seekers with their picks and shovels, the modern prospector carries a geiger counter and then stakes his claim.

The 619 Cleanium drive won and in a boom like this, the sky's the limit

Russian Colonel's son flies West

Berlin: The Authorities have granted political asylum to Valery Lysikov - the 17 year-old son of a Soviet Air Force Officer, who recently escaped through the Tron Curtain .

The youngster made an earlier attempt, but was recently caught by the recepte's Police. Now he seems to like the look of life in the West.