The familiar Wembley backcloth is coloured by the tartans of Scottish invaders - as on the lush green turf, the selected of Scotland are massage presented to the Duke of Gloucester.

Then - white-shirted England - introduced by Billy Wright Few home fans underestimate the coming task as England kick off - for the Scots have not tasted full international defeat at Wembley for 21 years ... But right from the start - one slight figure stands out in this peerless company - the soccer hour has produced the man - Stanley Matthews. Scotland's defence is jittery from the start - and Martin's partial clearance leads to goal number one - by Wilshaw Soon after - come Matthe Lofthouse makes it two.

Sections xerex and the xout to fx their xeals

But worse is to come - the old Wizard brings a new trick out of the hat a shot-that Martin just saves...

The Scots come fighting back hard - and Heilly cuts the leeway - a shot in off the post.

Book in milder - Cummings throws in for Scotland. An interception - then TRAILER X LIER TRING a lightning counter-attack - a tragic fumble by Martin and Revie taps the England three - Scotland one - and now Watch Matthews lay on goal number four - for Lofthouse.

Scotland and still dangerous in language - and a shot by Ring is cleared - with the aid of the crossbar

The second half - Scotland mazed and mystified by Matthews - their fans already resigned to defeat want a Matthews goal .... but he hits the post Then began a real soccer lesson for the Scots. Matthews, the Maestro, lays ever to Wilshaw /a Schoolteacher ... to marksup the foundation ... then h the score ...

Wilsham

2218

Wilshaw again - bursting through at the part - to ram the ball home

For Stan, the starts will begins at forty" as he starts the starts will be will b