

2226

At Wembley, Barrow (in dark shirts) kicked off against Workington Town - in the first all-North-West Rugby League Cup Final.

A battle of local rivals, and Workington ~~took~~ ^{HAD TAKEN.} an early lead.

Twice defeated finalists, Barrow hit back and their Skipper, Willie Horne, kicked a grand forty-yard penalty to level the scores. ^{TOOK}

In the second half, the Lancashire side took command, and here's one of the three tries that brought them victory.

Skipper Willie Horne had a field day - kicking six goals. ²

Workington went down fighting, with a final try by Gibson. ³

So Barrow won by twenty-one points to twelve, and the Duke of Edinburgh shared their first Cup triumph.

over page..