Isle of Wight Car Rally-

May 6th. '55.

Sandown was "journey's end" for 45 drivers competing in the island's own Car Rally.

After the previous day's start at Abingdon and a run through Wales, Ventnor's tortuous turns provided a real test of driving skill. Following a tough drive of nearly 500 miles, the competitors faced exacting breaking tests- carried out in misty ~~conditions~~ conditions- on Sandown Esplanade. The winner was Mr W.H. Morgan of the Herefordshire Motor Club, driving a Triumph T.R.2.
