London: At the Albert Hall, the Centenary Pageant of the Young Women's Christian Association was attended by Princess Alexandra, the Vice-Patron. Spanning a "century of service", the pageant featured the gentle Victorian Miss at exercise - and, in contrast, the ~~modern~~ sports girl of to-day. S

During the evening, the Princess received purses ~~(in response to the Centenary Appeal)~~ <sup>contributed by branches all over Britain</sup> raised by branches, <sup>in one purse to the Centenary Appeal.</sup> ~~in all parts of Britain and the world,~~ <sup>of the world</sup> and then announced the grand total. Christening

Kent: Lady Brabourne arrived for the christening of her infant daughter, Joanna Edwina Doreen at Mersham Parish Church.

The King and Queen of Sweden attended - with Lady Brabourne's parents - the Earl and Countess Mountbatten. King Gustav <sup>was</sup> ~~being~~ one of the ~~Godparents~~ Godparents. /

The ceremony was performed by the Archbishop of Canterbury, who has lately returned from his African tour.

The Baby's two brothers also have Royal Godparents - the Queen and the Duke of Edinburgh. /

Soccer

Madrid: Before 125,000 fans, the English soccer team (in white) met Spain - and had a real international battle on their hands.

England took the lead in the first half - when Bentley crashed home a picture goal. /

Then Spain literally tore into their opponents. Lefthouse lost his shirt - <sup>but they managed to save</sup> ~~but they saved~~ the match. Rial scored the equaliser. /

Flower Show

London: Once again the summer magic of the Chelsea Flower Show scents the Royal Hospital Grounds. ~~Jan~~

In spite of the wintry conditions that persisted almost to the opening day - here was the usual <sup>abundance</sup> ~~profusion~~ of fragrant blooms - that delighted Royal visitors on preview day - the Queen, <sup>and</sup> ~~and~~ Queen Elizabeth the Queen Mother, ~~and the King of Sweden.~~

It is forty-three years since this show was first held at Chelsea - yet every year it brings fresh glories to the London Season. /
