

Wedding Dress

London: In a famous sports fashion house - a new creation has been made for the Queen of the Centre Court; but it won't be seen at Wimbledon. It's a bridal gown for champion ~~Maureen Connolly~~ Maureen Connolly.

The designer, Teddy Tinling, has always combined tennis with glamour; and this charming gown, modelled here by Marlene Dee - (the ~~former~~ former ^(British) National Bathing Beauty Contest winner) is made from Nottingham Nylon lace. Over fifty yards of fabric ^{have} been used. ~~The~~ The gown is ^{being} shipped to California - where Maureen is to marry Norman Brinker, the well-known Olympic horseman.

Italy's Parade

Italy: Arriving at a huge ~~parade~~ parade in Naples, President Gronchi reviewed an impressive march-past of military units. The occasion was "Veteran's Day" and 150,000 men from all parts of the country took part. Famous Italian regiments were represented - saluting their President in traditional manner; - and mechanised units ^{joined in a} ~~tribute~~ tribute to the veterans of many campaigns.

Royal Tournament

~~Earl's Court: The Royal Tournament opens in London - and features the skill and timing of the Army Physical Training Corps and the Combined Women's Services.~~

A welcome to newcomers - the Pape Band of the Pakistan Police.

The Tournament is held annually - for the benefit of Service charities, and the encouragement of skill-at-arms; - and, this year, we marvelled at the daring of Marine Commandos in a cliff-top raid.

Wounded men are lowered ~~are~~ down to the beach - and ^{THEIR} ~~the~~ mission accomplished - the rest of the troop follow - taking the quickest way down.

Queen Hands Colours

— over page —