

2240

Washington-- Wailing sirens ^{sent} ~~and~~ the inhabitants down to the shelters for the biggest-ever Civil Defence Exercise ~~as~~ "Operation Alert"- involving all the major cities throughout America. ~~and~~ Helicopters are waiting to take Defence Chiefs to secret hide-outs within 300 miles of the capital.

President Eisenhower leaves for an unknown destination-- leading the Government ~~to~~ exodus from the city.

In theory, the atom-bomb attack has inflicted severe casualties, but the Government carries on the fight- from its mountain stronghold.

In Buenos Aires- this was the first major demonstration against General Peron's régime, as Roman Catholics challenge the harsh measures directed against their Church leaders.

~~and~~ Since these pictures, Argentina has been the centre of revolt. Service units led the uprising with a bombing attack on Government House.

~~London~~ EDINBURGH - PRINCE PHILIP IS INSTALLED AS AN HONORARY FELLOW OF THE ROYAL COLLEGE OF SURGEONS AND AFTER DINNER SPEAKS OF THE SURGEON AS 'A GREAT CRAFTS MAN.'

~~During~~ - During his stay north of the Border, the Duke visited the Caledonia Flour Mill at Leith, and watched the processing of ~~flour~~ flour before it becomes our daily bread.

The Duke spent some time examining the complicated modern machinery- so different from the primitive grinding, once done by hand. ~~The mill~~ has cost £2.000.000 and will be in production by the autumn.

Mr J. Arthur Rank presented ^{THE} Royal Guest with the replica of a windmill- as a memento of his visit.