

Princess Margaret

London: Arriving at the Royal Academy of Dramatic Art, Princess Margaret (herself a theatre-lover and ~~an~~ assistant-producer of <sup>an</sup> amateur charity play) saw young pupils receiving their grounding for a stage career. The Princess spent nearly three hours watching these enthusiastic beginners learning to become the good troupers of tomorrow.

Top Spinners

Malaya - where one of the oldest sports is top-spinning - though it's far from the gentle art of our childhood days.

This battle was between two State teams - each trying to knock their opponent's top out of a marked court - and replace it with their own. Yes, it's <sup>far</sup> more than a quaint sport - it's a knock-out.

Car racing

~~.....~~ In Europe, several Grand Prix races have been cancelled following the Le Mans tragedy.

Two years ago - a similar disaster hit this very track - and here it comes again. A car partially blocks the track....and then...~~.....~~
But happily, the <sup>spectators</sup> ~~.....~~ were safe and the driver escaped serious injury.
