New York: In a clash of world champions, Archie Moore, the coloured veteran, retained his Light-Heavyweight crown, when he knocked out Carl "Bobo" Olson, in the third round.

When Olson got up, the Referee had to convince him that the fight really was over. Meanwhile, at thirty-eight - "Old Moore" wants a date with Rocky Marciano.

Over to France - where racing at Longchamps featured another champion. It's Phil Drake (No. 17), the Epsom Derby winner, coming along on the outside, to win the valuable Grand Prix ~~by two lengths~~ by two lengths.

A proud day for Mde Volterra (whose three year-old champion shattered the course record) ~~AND~~ ^{AND} congratulations from President Coty.

Racing thrills at Newcastle, too, ^A field of sixteen thundering along the straight in the Northumberland Plate - affectionately known as the "Pitman's Derby"

Again, the winner comes on the outside. It's Little Cloud, ^(No 6) with Lester Piggott up - racing home by two lengths, in this Two-Mile Handicap.

Congratulations for Lester Piggott - whose first mount at Newcastle - was a winner!

Making a welcome return to Henley, Russian oarsmen are practising in ~~new~~ borrowed boats - their own racing shells being ^{held} help up by the dock strike.

This year, the Krasnow Znamia Eight will represent Russia in the Grand Challenge Cup....one of the three events won by Soviet oarsmen last year.

At Wimbledon, Jaroslav Drobny (the holder) and America's Tony Trabert salute a Royal enthusiast, the Duchess of Kent, before their battle for a place in the semi-finals.

Drobny serving - fighting an uphill battle against his younger opponent, Trabert serving - at match point - after winning the first two sets. Victory for Trabert and the eclipse of the champion. 8-6, 6-1, 6-4...

In the Women's Singles, Britain's last representative, Angela Buxton lost to America's Mrs Fleitz, after a brave fight, 6-2, 6-2.

And the giant-killers, Jennifer Middleton and Doreen Spiers (who knocked out the top seeds, Doris Hart and Barbara Davidson) just couldn't keep it up - losing to Miss Muller and Mrs Hoad - ~~6-2, 6-4~~.
