

Metropolitan Police display

At Imber Court, Surrey, the Metropolitan Police staged their annual "at home" to the public - and those invaluable "four-footed constables" demonstrated their qualities of intelligence and obedience.

~~and~~ to introduce the party atmosphere - the Mounted Section played "Musical Chairs".

~~Highlight of the show was the Musical Ride~~

The Musical Ride was the highlight of a show which gave the citizen the chance to say "thank you" to the "men-in-blue" - for a year of loyal service.

Stratheden

Tilbury: When the P & O Liner, Stratheden, arrived home from Australia - seventeen members of her crew paraded to receive awards for gallantry.

Sir William Currie, Chairman of the Company, ~~presented~~ <sup>presented</sup> the awards

~~and~~ told how the men manned lifeboats, in mountainous seas, to pick up ~~the~~ the crew of the Greek trawler, "Jason" - which sank in the Ionian Sea, last March. ~~MEMORANDUM~~

Among the recipients were Second Officer C. Morris of Buntingford,

Hertfordshire, ~~and~~ <sup>and</sup> Asst. Engineer, C. Suckling - who ~~had~~ <sup>had</sup> previously recounted ~~related~~ the story to ~~the~~ ~~news~~ News.

Two among many heroes of ~~the~~ a dramatic sea-rescue.

[Handwritten signature]