

Argentina: These dramatic on-the-spot pictures of the bombing raids on ~~Buenos Aires~~ Buenos Aires ⁱⁿ were taken during the recent revolt by units of the Naval Forces against the Peron regime.

The attacks were centred ^{on} ~~against~~ the Plaza de Mayo, (the Whitehall of Buenos Aires) causing ~~heavy~~ ^{much} damage - while heavy fighting broke out between ~~the~~ rebel forces and ~~the~~ loyal Army troops.

Two separate bombing raids were made on Government House - leaving a trail of death and destruction in the City. Reports estimated the killed and injured at well over a thousand.

Then - to add to the general confusion - mobs (described as ^{being} led by Communists) ^{begin} ~~set out~~ to pillage and set fire to Roman Catholic Churches...

The Cardinal's Residence was also attacked - an unhappy sequel to the recent bitterness between Church and State.
