

G.B. 2245

London: Dinner in honour of Sir Anthony

8th July 1955

London: At the dinner, given by the English Speaking Union, to Sir Anthony

~~Eden and Lady Eden,~~

~~Mr Attlee,~~ the Vice President, led the toast of the evening.

THE OCCASION WAS TO MARK THE PREMIER'S 20 YEARS AS FOREIGN SECRETARY,

AND in his reply, Sir Anthony commented on the reported "new look" Russian

policy. / SOUND

~~The Premier~~ also defined the Western principles for the forthcoming Geneva Conference; but first, <sup>America's</sup> Mr Lewis Douglas and the many

<sup>other</sup> guests, heard him speak in praise of N.A.T.O. / SOUND.

the North Atlantic Treaty Organisation.

(Time to say NATO in full)