News flashes (2246) 12th July 1955

Investiture at Palace

Buckingham Palace: Before leaving for Ascot, the Queen held an Investiture for recipients of her Birthday honours.

The K.C.V.O. for the Bishop of London, Dr [redacted] Wand - for outstanding services to the Church.

Captain Ivan Thompson, [redacted] Master of the liner Queen Elizabeth becomes a Knight Bachelor.

For his great service in Malaya - General Sir Gerald Templer [redacted] was made a Knight Grand Cross of the Order of the Bath.

And the G.B.E. went to Sir William Rootes, Chairman of the Dollar Exports Council.

Austin Jubilee

Birmingham: To mark the Golden Jubilee of the Austin Motor Company, Mr Harry Austin unveiled a plaque to his brother, Herbert - the founder of the great Organisation. And then received a Gold Medallion from Sir Leonard Lord - the Chairman and Managing Director.

[redacted], A cavalcade of half-a-century of [redacted] progress emphasised an outstanding contribution to British motoring.

The famous "Seven" first appeared in 1922 - and [redacted] this TOURING MODEL [redacted] went round the world in post-war days - in twenty-one days.

Lunnh to Sir Gordon

London: A literary luncheon with a sporting flavour as Don Cockell and Gordon Pirie supported the guest of honour, Sir Gordon Richards. Introduced by Lord Brabazon, the "great little man" outlines his [redacted] STORY. [redacted] SOUND.

Tour de France

FRANCE, [redacted]: For the first time, a team of ten British riders were among the 130 crack cyclists who set out from LE HAVRE on the 2,700 mile "Tour de France".

The race is run in twenty-two stages: there's over twenty-seven thousand pounds in prize money - and the winner of the opening stage to Dieppe was Miguel Poblet of Spain.