Log Rolling Championships

12th July 1955

~~Oregon Log Rolling Championships in the 11th Ann~~

Oregon: Log rolling champions meet in the Eleventh Annual Timber Carnival at Albany. ~~_____~~

A REAL spinechiller in this "lumberjack carnival" is the speed climb - a one hundred foot sprint to the top... ^{it}

Coming down - the result sways in the balance. ^{it} It looks like a dead-heat but victory goes to a local boy - Malcolm Harper. ¹⁷

St Andrew's

St. Andrew's: Record qualifying-rounds foretold a great battle for the 1955 Open Championship.

Frank Jowle of Edgbaston set the pace with a fabulous sixty-three - a New Course record.. And from then on - in the competition proper, he was among the leaders...

Three times past champion, Bobby Locke of South Africa redeemed a mediocre start to finish fourth.

~~_____~~ ^{AND} a final round of seventy four ruined ^{JOWLES} ~~_____~~ victory hopes. ^S

~~_____~~ Peter Thomson of Australia, the holder, was playing like a machine - to shatter the 28 year-old course-record with 281 for four ~~_____~~ rounds.

~~_____~~ ^A great champion who had defended his title against the toughest opposition. ¹
