

Roedean

Sussex: A famous South coast landmark, Roedean School, was honoured by a visit from Queen Elizabeth the Queen Mother during the School's 70th birthday celebrations.

On the lawns, the pupils paid tribute to their distinguished guest and many ~~other~~ outstanding scholars received Royal encouragement. (3)

Roedean girls are renowned for their cricket ~~matches~~; but, on this occasion, they gave a ~~classic~~ <sup>classical</sup> display of Greek Dancing.

Another School occasion, this time on London's River, as Earl Mountbatten (accompanied by the Countess) is rowed out to the Thames Nautical Training College, H.M.S. Worcester, lying off Greenhithe.

The First Sea Lord had come to distribute the Annual Reports and Prizes...

During the past year - over two hundred Cadets <sup>have undergone</sup> ~~underwent~~ training for a ~~maritime~~ maritime career.../

Atom-powered Sub.

Connecticut: All was ready for the launching of America's second atom-powered submarine. Then, Mrs Sterling <sup>COLE</sup> ~~literally~~ "literally missed the boat" ~~with the bottle of champagne~~.
Yes, the bottle of champagne arrived too late - ~~the launch was cancelled~~

~~Several other submarines are being built at the same time.~~

~~So, the "Sea Wolf" joins her sister ship, the "Nautilus"~~
~~the VANGUARD OF A future~~ nuclear-submarine fleet.../
