

2251

Sandhurst: Arriving for the Sovereign's Parade - the Inspecting Officer, Prince Philip, <sup>and</sup> ~~_____~~, the Duchess of Kent, whose elder son, the Duke, was among the Senior-Officer Cadets, <sup>2</sup> ~~_____~~

~~with _____~~
In Field-Marshal's uniform, Prince Philip inspected the Cadets - parading, at the Royal Military Academy, for the last time, before receiving the Queen's Commission.

With his Mother and Sister as onlookers, the Duke of Kent (wearing two Coronation Medals) came through with flying colours. He is to be posted to the Royal Scots Greys.

~~_____~~
~~_____~~

FIELD-MARSHAL THE DUKE OF EDINBURGH ~~_____~~ complimented the parade on its turn-out / SOUND

Then ~~_____~~ to Senior Under-Officer S.T.G. Morgan, the Sword of Honour, as the best Officer-Cadet of the term.

And the Queen's Medal to C.W. Beckett - who was first in order of merit

~~_____~~ - The Cadets march <sup>last</sup> off their ~~_____~~ parade...at Sandhurst..