

9B 2252

News Flashes--

August 2nd. '55.

Canadian Girl--

Toronto

Canada-- A year ago, an unknown/schoolgirl Marilyn Bell achieved overnight fame, when she became the first swimmer to conquer the 32 mile crossing of the icy waters of Lake Ontario.

Now- comes <sup>EVEN</sup> greater success, for Marilyn has battled her way across the English Channel in 14½ hours- the youngest-ever Channel swimmer.

President Eisenhower's ~~XXXXXXXXXX~~ Announcement-

WHITE HOUSE

Washington-- At his first Press Conference since returning from Geneva, President Eisenhower, after summing up the significance of the Talks, tells of some purely personal news- (Sound)-

which had obviously delighted him

4 RIVER