

News flashes

2254

Funeral of Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria

Germany: Thousands of people lined the streets of Munich to pay their last respects at the State Funeral of Crown Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria, who recently died of a heart attack at the age of eighty-six. The late Crown Prince was head of the former ruling House of Wittelsbach. His funeral was attended by family mourners - led by Prince Alsbrecht - the new Head of the House, by the Deputy-Chancellor, Herr Blucher and by nobility from all over Europe...

Atoms for peace

In Geneva, this Conference of Scientists and observers, representing seventy-two countries, is a heartening sight for all mankind, for they are gathered to discuss the peaceful uses of atomic energy.

~~XXXXXXXXXXXX~~

In addition to the verbal exchange of information, which will benefit ~~all~~ all countries, at a time when natural fuels are slowly running out, an exhibition features machinery and equipment used in harnessing Nuclear power.