

Marilyn Bell Home-

Canada-- Toronto folk proudly acclaim their teen-ager Marilyn Bell- who, after ~~making~~ ^{making} news headlines by swimming ~~in~~ Lake Ontario, ~~has~~ ^{has} added to her laurels by crossing from France to England in 14½ hours. ~~Well done, Marilyn, for becoming the~~ ^{A welcome back from her home folks} ~~fourth~~ youngest swimmer of the English Channel.

Lady Boyle-

London-- At Chelsea Register Office, the ~~happy~~ marriage ~~of~~ ^{OF} Catherine, Viscountess Boyle, and Mr Greville Baylis- underwriter and race-horse owner. The honeymoon is being spent in Italy.

U.S. Defences-

American Air Defence is still No 1 Priority. Key cities are ~~guard~~ ^{guarded} guarded by powerful radar scanners which probe the skies- 24 hours a day. And batteries of guided missiles (with ½ ton war-heads) can be instantly launched against any marauding bomber. While 100 miles off the coast, a 60 foot Tower, (anchored to the ocean bed) will house the ~~the~~ latest radar detectors and their crews. They are said to withstand any Atlantic storm.

U.S. Floods-

America reports record rainfalls which have caused devastating floods throughout the North-Eastern States, in the wake of ^{the} Hurricane Diane. ~~Fire~~ ^{Fire} Fire, by night, ~~adds~~ adds to the terror in Connecticut, ~~when~~ ^{Water} Water coming in contact with inflammable chemicals, set off a gigantic ~~explosion~~ ^{blaze} conflagration at a ~~magnesium~~ ^{magnesium} magnesium factory. The gutted ~~site~~ ^{building} spells unemployment ~~for thousands~~ to add to the horror. It's the same story everywhere- communications at a standstill- with the raging waters sweeping all before them. As the floods recede, ~~there is~~ ^{THERE IS} grim testimony to the ~~the~~ fury of this terrifying ~~deluge~~ deluge.
