

Cyprus Talks

London: A Three-Power Conference opens at Lancaster House, as Britain's Foreign Secretary escorts the Foreign Ministers of Greece and Turkey into the Conference Room.

Under the Chairmanship of Mr MacMillan, the ~~three~~ delegations were trying, primarily, to reach an ^{agreement} ~~agreement~~ on Cyprus...

For Turkey, Mr Zorlü put the case of the Turkish minority on the island.

While Mr Stephanopoulos brought the Greek viewpoint of self-determination.

~~But~~ ^{May} these friendly counsels ^{help to} ~~achieve~~ ^{achieve} a happy solution.

Tank-killer

O
U
T

America: The U.S. Marines demonstrate ~~the latest~~ their latest armoured weapon, at Quantico, Virginia. It's a high-speed tank - that mounts six 106 m.m. rifles (that's about four inches).

The huge rifles are sighted by smaller guns and they are also recoilless - saving the kick for the enemy...

U.S. Floods

~~AMERICA.~~ President Eisenhower makes an aerial tour of the devastated North-Eastern areas - pin-pointing the appalling floods ~~that~~ that have surged over ^{seven} ~~xxx~~ States...

Already, the heartbreaking task of reconstruction has begun - while armed guards are posted to prevent looters from bringing further distress to the sufferers in America's worst floods.

Baby Giraffe

Ireland: Introducing the latest arrival at the Dublin Zoo - a baby giraffe, now thirteen days old - and named "Happy" by popular request....

The healthy youngster and her Mother "Bashful" are both doing well...

~~Despite her name, Mother~~ ~~she~~ need be retiring no longer - for the long and short of it is that "Happy" is the first baby Giraffe to survive, at the Dublin Zoo

(Davis Cup follows - separate recording)