Duke of Kent

Dorset: At the Gunnery School, Lulworth, the Duke of Kent (wearing overalls and beret) shares gun drill instruction with other ~~trainees~~ officers on the course...

The Duke (who was recently commissioned ~~as~~ a 2nd Lieut. in the Royal Scots Greys) is also ~~training on a Centurion Tank.~~ undergoing Tank training

Videophone

THE TELE-TELEPHONE:

~~_____~~: Just lift the receiver and dial. Oh!!

~~_____~~ <sup>YES</sup> - she does need to freshen up..

Of course, it has ~~its~~ <sup>the</sup> disadvantages - especially when ~~Hubby~~ <sup>the old man</sup> is delayed at the office....

Ship rescue

The North Atlantic: Floundering in mountainous seas - and with her engine-room afire, the London freighter "Argobeam" was in desperate ~~straits~~  <sup>plight</sup> ... IS

Then, in the nick of time, lifeboats from the Swedish liner, "Kungsholm" rescued twenty-nine of the freighter's crew in a magnificent feat of seamanship... IS

The "Argobeam" was later taken in tow - and her Master, Captain Watson (after thanking the Swedish skipper) <sup>bravely, heroically</sup> stayed on board until his ship was anchored off the Scottish coast.

Pets

What's that, you say - assorted table fare. Well, we are really - we're the pets of Mrs Meier of Berlin. And we don't believe in fighting like cats and dogs - we're just good companions.

Getting bored? O.K., let's have a bundle in the basket - our bird friend can watch the feathers fly...

Come on, chaps, let's have a jam session...

What shall it be - ~~_____~~ <sup>Kitten on the Keys</sup> ~~_____~~ <sup>Kitten on the keys?</sup> OR THE MUSIC GOES ROUND AND AROUND?
