Boxing

Johannesburg: Defending his World Bantamweight Crown, Robert Cohen of France soon sized up his taller challenger, Willie Toweel of South Africa, - and put him down in the second round. /

Willie - (the brother of Vic Toweel the former World Champion) was soon back in the fray - but not for long - Another count of three...

After these set-backs, Toweel rightly decided to use his longer reach and so keep out of trouble. Cohen's plan was to get in close to land his vicious body-blows... /

A thrilling contrast of styles that ended in a draw. So Toweel remained unbeaten and Cohen kept his title.... /
