

Holland: Crown ~~Princess~~<sup>Princess</sup> Beatrix officiated at the launching of a new submarine chaser, at ~~Flushing~~<sup>Flushing</sup> ~~with fitting ceremony~~ <sup>ALL WENT WELL -</sup> - until the champagne christened some of the crowd. Then Royal dignity melted into hearty laughter.../

The Princess (who was accompanied by her father, Prince Bernhard) finally launched the vessel (named the ~~Kink~~ Limburg) - bidding "God Speed" to this new addition to the Royal Netherlands Navy.../

Charity Cricket

Sussex: "Brighter Cricket" was on the order-paper when "The Politicians" (including four Cabinet Ministers) met "The Stage" in a charity match at East Grinstead.

In the field, Richard Attenborough was unprepared for the fierce onslaught ~~of the Westminster Wallopers~~ of the Westminster Wallopers. Misjudging a hit by Lt. Colonel Bromley-Davenport - the film star was knocked unconscious and carried off to hospital. /

Leaving the front bench - the Foreign Secretary, Mr Harold MacMillan took his stand ~~to face the opposition~~<sup>to face the opposition.</sup> But he soon lost a colleague when Sir Walter Monckton missed his strike and was bowled by Rex Harrison. /

The hard-hitting Politicians made 178 <sup>in the drawn match.</sup> Led by their Skipper, John Mills, the stage were hoping for a long run, <sup>but when</sup> guest artist, Denis Compton was bowled for a duck, - they gave him the bird. / SOUND TO END.