Moscow: A record crowd packed the Dynamo Stadium - to welcome the first British Athletic team ever to visit the Soviet Union.

The match confirmed the great strides made by Russian athletes, in recent years - but they couldn't match those of Jack Parker in the 110 metres hurdles

The British star won in 14.4 seconds - with his sporting rival, Boris Stolyarov - taking second place

This poetry of motion is, of course, Thelma Hopkins, the Belfast girl....

She won the high jump - and then narrowly missed the world record. Well Done, Thelma.

In the Three Thousand Metres Steeplechase, the Russian number one, Vasili Vlasenko recently claimed a world record time...

Our hopes were pinned on John Disley of Wales - and here he is - making his effort - ably supported by Chris Brasher

In the Five Thousand Metres - Britain was represented by Chris Chataway and the Northern star, George Ibbotsen.

Right from the gun, the Russian pair, Chernyavski and Pudov went into the lead - and stayed there until the final lap...when Chataway moved up into second place

With his team-mates watching anxiously, Chris delays his final burst....

Then...there he goes - unleashing that terrific sprint and Chernyavski has no replay reply. Another great triumph for Chris Chataway...

The points-total favoured Russia but the outcome was a triumph for East-West friendship.
