Flashes (continued)

Stallion Farm

Germany: Every other year, the State Stallion Farm (thirty miles North of Frankfurt) puts on a grand display - just to show the taxpayers that their money is being well spent.

The horses (all bred on the farm) provide dashing entertainment. After all there's nothing like keeping amused the man who foots the bill.

The horses get their big laugh on Budget Day SCUND Box Tuel one come.

From a Studd Farm in Surrey are this baby foal and her mother - an Irish donkey, named Fanny the Flirt...

Fanny was rescued by the Horses and Ponies Protection Association when she was bound for the slaughterhouse.

The well-bred immates

PAYFUL ANTILS OF A CHARMING PAIR