

Hereford- Blessing the Animals-

Oct 4th. '55.

Hereford-- To the Church of Holy Trinity came animal lovers, for a service to commemorate the life and work of St Francis of Assisi, the Patron Saint of birds and animals.

The service was held in the Churchyard, and young children with their pets joined the prayers for the protection of all God's ~~creatures~~ creatures. /s

In lighter vein, one youngster told the story of his naughty dog- ^{PAID POETIC TRIBUTE TO HIS DOG}

Young voices joined in the well-known children's hymn - and with, perhaps, one or two exceptions, behaviour among the animals was good ^{-SOUND}

~~The young voices joined in the well-known children's hymn - and with, perhaps, one or two exceptions, behaviour among the animals was good.~~ ^{AND WITH, PERHAPS, ONE OR TWO EXCEPTIONS, BEHAVIOUR AMONG THE ANIMALS WAS GOOD.}

North of the Border, over 200 classes competing for the Scottish Kennel Club's Championships, included a Royal Welsh favourite.

While rough-haired collies put up a stout show against Continental dandies. /

From Yorkshire came this champion Dalmatian.

With such high-class canine ~~society~~ society about- it was a ~~difficult~~ difficult job for the judges. ~~But BERNMONT HELENA - a St Bernard~~

~~But~~ from Leicestershire, ~~the impressive winner~~ WAS A

ST. BERNARD - "BERNMONT HELENA" /

~~all the other dogs were very good~~
