

Conservative Party Conference

Bournemouth: Delegates arrive for the Conservative Party Conference, to voice their approval <sup>of</sup> ~~for~~ past achievements and offer suggestions for the future.

Ministerial arrivals included Mr Lennox Boyd (who spoke on the Commonwealth and Empire) and Sir David Eccles - Minister of Education. There was a warm reception for the retiring Party Chairman, Lord Woolton - who hands over an efficient organisation to his successor, Mr Oliver Poole.

Opening highlight was "the Butler plan" - to curb inflation, cut-the-cost of living - and set Britain on the right road to economic stability...

Girl Pipers at St. Paul's

London: Colourful musicians who have piped their way into ~~many hearts~~ <sup>So many</sup> hearts from an Essex suburb across five continents - parade outside St. Paul's Cathedral - for a special occasion.

They're the famous Dagenham Girl Pipers - celebrating a quarter of a century of wonderful achievement...

For their invaluable help in the National Savings Drive, Lord Mackintosh, the Chairman, presented new colours to these talented girls who have played before the Queen.

Princess Royal's visit

Quebec: Arriving at historic Wolfe's Cove, aboard the liner "Empress of France", The Princess Royal, (the Queen's Aunt), was welcomed to Canada by the Governor-General, Mr Vincent Massey.

Her Royal Highness ~~(who is making her first visit to Canada)~~ <sup>IS MAKING A</sup> spent some ~~time sightseeing~~ - ~~before~~ month's tour of the Dominion.

Greta Garbo

Paris: After a Continental holiday, screen actress Greta Garbo leaves for Orly Airport to fly back to the United States.

A <sup>famous</sup> ~~great~~ star in the 1930's, "Garbo" has always shunned publicity - perhaps in the belief that a truly great artist is recognised by the quality of her work....
