

Bournemouth: Farewell note of the Conservative Conference, as the Chairman, Mrs Emmet, presents a "red rose of Lancaster" to Lord Woolton - the ~~retiring~~ retiring chairman of the party organisation. / SOUND

The climax ~~of the conference~~ <sup>ON THIS LAST DAY CAME</sup> comes with the arrival of Sir Anthony and Lady Eden - the Premier making his first appearance at this annual conference - as Leader of the Party. / S

During his address, Sir Anthony referred to the improved relations since the Big Four Geneva Meetings. / SOUND

~~A hopeful outlook that has made possible a slight reduction~~ <sup>SIR ANTHONY ALSO ANNOUNCED A SLIGHT REDUCTION</sup> in the

National Service call-up. / SOUND

Finally - a warning that we must continue to strive for the benefits of nuclear energy. SOUND.

This vital problem of National Service also cropped up at Margate - to great Labour Party delegates arriving for their 54th Annual Conference. Among the many familiar figures were Mr Herbert Morrison (accompanied by his wife) ~~and Mr Attlee with~~

~~the~~ The Party Chief, Mr Attlee with Mr Gaitskell ~~the~~ treasurer... AND <sup>Mr James Griffiths -</sup>

Inside the Hall, Dr. Edith Summerskill brings long and distinguished service to the post of Chairman, <sup>As</sup> the party gets down to the task of re-organisation ~~in~~