

2293

Off to Australia--

Oct 14th. '55.

Tilbury-- Journeying with a "passport to happiness" in the liner Oronsay, Mrs Barbara Porritt becomes the millionth post-war emigrant to Australia.

And there's a friendly send-off for this pioneering Yorkshire girl and her husband from Australia's High Commissioner in London, and Lady White.

Making his first trip, pantry boy Nicholas Clark says "good-luck" with ~~flowers~~ flowers.

AUSTRALIA'S

ALSO CAME

~~Mr. Bentley has come to say~~ Dick Bentley has come to say "Bon Voyage". It's an event of double significance, for the young couple are combining their honeymoon with their voyage to a new land of opportunity.