News flashes

229

18th October 1955

Cadets at Dartmouth

Dertmouth: During the goodwill visit of the Russian squadron, one hundred Cadets were warmly welcomed to the Royal Naval College, where they shared for a day, the life of a British cadet...

The Academy, with its ninety-two years of neutical history, made a deep impression on the visitors - who also joined training cruises on the nearby River Dart.

Mexico: More tragic pictures from the flood-devastated city of Tempico where rescue launches battle against the ever-rising waters. D Helicopters, from U.S. Carriers lying off-shore, continue their round-the clock help to the stricken inhebitants, who survived the fury of Hurricane "Janet" - only to be trapped by the unprecedented floods Now after days of privation, many are hauled to safety - away from the entit nightmare of Tempico's Tayaxox trial and tributation.

The Queen returns

Drevious ever in

London: After a night journey from Scotland, the return of the Queen to Buckingham Palace, after her two-month stay at Balmoral - was an occasion of more than usual interest. With the Queen were Princes Charles and Princess Anne - looking forward to the reunion with their Father - who had flown back from Germany