

Return of Sultan?

Morocco: Sweeping like a tidal wave through this French Protectorate is the demand for the restoration of the former Sultan, Mohammed ben Youssef. In Casablanca and other big towns - large-scale demonstrations are staged in favour of the Sultan - who was exiled to Madagascar ⁱⁿ nearly two years ago.

Meanwhile, at the invitation of the French Government, the former Monarch arrives ~~back~~ in France, where he is besieged by the Press. ~~and~~ Following the abdication of his successor, Ben Arafa, the Sultan expects to return to his people...in triumph.

Robot plane

America: in war-time, aerial reconnaissance costs many lives. Now, a robot plane to do this dangerous but vital job, undertakes its first mission, in ~~the~~ Arizona.

The pilotless craft makes its jet-assisted take-off from a sixty foot catapult. ^{It} ~~is~~ is controlled by radio - while ~~skipping~~ taking ~~these~~ ^{like these} pictures over the target area. ^{THE ROBOT} ~~PLANE~~ HAVING LANDED BY PARACHUTE

~~More amazing still~~ the Field-Commander gets his pictorial information - within ^{one} hour.

Dulles Meets Franco

Spain: The Pardoe Palace, in Madrid, was the setting for a two-hour meeting between General Franco and Mr Dulles, the ^{American} Secretary-of-State. ~~and~~ ^{MR DULLES HAD FLOWN} ~~The American statesman~~ ^{came} to Madrid during the Geneva Conference.

His talks with General Franco ranged from current international affairs to the Mutual Aid and Defence Agreements between the two countries. ^{They} ~~and~~ were concluded in mutual understanding.

Mountbatten in Canada

Canada: During his visit to the Dominion for top-level Naval discussions - the First Sea Lord, Admiral ^{Earl} ~~Lord~~ Mountbatten, inspected Cadets at the Royal Military College, Kingston, Ontario.

~~During his three-day stay, Lord Mountbatten~~

During a three-day stay - helicopter-travel enabled ~~him~~ ^{Lord Mountbatten} to carry out a full programme of visits to military establishments.