

Addis Ababa: Silver Jubilee honours for Emperor Haile Selassie of Ethiopia, as Mr Busk, the British Envoy, leads members of the Diplomatic Corps in the presentation of gifts from Foreign Governments, at a Palace ceremony.

The Queen's present of a silver cigar box, with the Ethiopian Arms and Imperial Monogram engraved in gold, was amongst the many rare gifts

~~the Queen's present of a silver cigar box, with the Ethiopian Arms and Imperial Monogram engraved in gold, was amongst the many rare gifts~~
An International Trade Fair proved a highlight of the Jubilee ~~celebrations~~ celebrations. It was opened by the Emperor - using a silver key.

Arousing much interest in a land that is still largely backward, is an Ethiopian village display ~~showing the life in this huge country~~

Nineteen foreign exhibitors brought striking proof of increasing rivalry for the Ethiopian market. ^{FOR EXAMPLE THE} Latest car models from Britain, ~~and the~~

During his visit, the Emperor saw paintings of his Coronation - ^{RECALLING} ~~moments that recall~~ twenty-five years of social progress in Ethiopia.