

President Eisenhower

America: Before leaving the Fitzsimmons Army Hospital, President Eisenhower received a visitor, President Armas of Guatemala, who brought a rare gift, <sup>This was the</sup> Presidential Emblem, woven by the nuns of a Guatemalan convent.

Then the great day arrived, <sup>the day of</sup> the President ~~return~~ and Mrs Eisenhower's return to Washington. And in thanking the many well-wishers for their wonderful reception, Ike proved that he hasn't lost his customary good humour. SOUND.

Out West, in California, a canyon brush fire rages over three thousand acres, near Los Angeles - devouring many homes in a suburban community. <sup>For</sup> ~~Over~~ four days, volunteer firemen fought a round-the-clock battle - until they finally brought the blaze under control.

Artillery rocket

Japan: The impact of modern progress echoes around the age-old sacred mountain of ~~Fujiyama~~ Fujiyama - with the demonstration of the U.S. Army's new artillery rocket. The range is set - the firing squad runs for cover <sup>2</sup> - and, away she goes.

Bluebird trials

America: With the salvaged "Bluebird" back in racing trim on Lake Mead, Nevada, Donald Campbell <sup>PREPARES</sup> ~~is preparing~~ for another attempt to raise his own world water-speed record of 202 miles an hour. Already, the young speed ace has touched 201 m.p.h. - so given good fortune and ideal conditions - Bluebird looks capable of setting a new high mark - for Britain.
