

GB 2285

London-- Scottish Queen of Industry-

Nov 25th. '55.

London Airport--- Arriving in a B.O.A.C. Canberra plane is Miss Isabel Duff-- Scotland's Queen of Industry.

The girl from Aberdeen is greeted by British film star Tony Wright, who will act as her guide.

Then a visit to the J. Arthur Rank studios at Pinewood. Miss Duff, who is 23, was ~~xxxxxx~~ elected Queen of Scottish Industry from 10,000 entrants in a competition run by the "Daily ~~xxxxxx~~ Record". Her prize included a trip to New York.

On one of the sets, Isabel Duff meets ~~xxxxxx~~ actor Kenneth More, who is playing the part of Douglas Bader, the legless air ace in the film

"Reach for the Sky". And further meetings with Producers and Directors completed a thrilling day for Scotland's own Queen of Industry.