

North Malaya: After eight long years of jungle warfare - the town of Baling becomes a centre of truce, the hope of a strife-torn country, as top-level talks are <sup>ABOUT TO TAKE PLACE</sup> ~~held~~ in the English school.

With the strictest security precautions in the hands of British and Malayan police, the stage is set. ~~As~~ First to arrive for the Conference is Tengku Abdul Rahman, Chief Minister of the Federation of Malaya - and Mr Marshall - Chief Minister of Singapore...

~~xxxxxxxxxxxx~~

And under police protection, from the jungle where he has organised acts <sup>14thless</sup> of terrorism for so many years comes <sup>CHIN</sup> ~~Chang~~ Peng - the outlawed Communist leader, and his delegation.

The outlaw (with a price of thirty thousand pounds on his head) goes in to meet the leaders of a law-abiding people - for discussions that were doomed to end in deadlock and failure.

<sup>Refusing to</sup> ~~The Communists refused to~~ ~~accept~~ the Government's amnesty <sup>Terms</sup>

~~to~~ <sup>The Communists</sup> returned to their jungle - <sup>AND THEIR</sup> ~~their~~ creed of violence and terrorism. ~~to end the~~

~~to end the~~