

At Molineux - West Bromwich came out first for a great Midland cup-tie that attracted the biggest crowd of the day. ~~5~~

Dogged by injuries, the Wolves have been disappointing in recent games...

But now, they're all keyed up - as <sup>the Albion</sup> West Brom (in their familiar stripes) kick off - and the battle is on...

Early attacks by the Wolves - but their rearranged forward line breaks down before a resolute defence.

~~The Albion, with half-back Ray Barlow leading the attack - soon find the way to goal - and Lee opens the score.~~

The Albion, with half-back Ray Barlow leading the attack - soon find the way to goal - and Lee opens the score.

Another goal is on the way - this time by winger Griffin <sup>and the Albion</sup> ~~have a free nothing interest test.~~

The second half brought all-out Wolves attacks: but West Bromwich held on grimly for a hard-earned two-one victory, and a home tie against Portsmouth.
