

Encouraged by the tremendous prestige gained ~~xxx~~ at the Venice Film Festival - the British Industry now sends its ambassadors on a tour of Northern Europe. ~~xxx~~ Brenda de Banzie and Ian Carmichael ~~xxx~~ ^{ARE THE FIRST STARS TO ARRIVE} at London Airport.

Lovely Belinda Lee with her memories of that summer in Venice - is ^{JOINED} ~~xxx~~ by Anthony Steele. / 5

And ¹ Here ² behind the camera for a change, is Donald Sinden - the unofficial cameraman of the party. / 3

A welcome for Susan Beaumont - happy to be joining the ~~party~~ TRAVELLERS.

While Julia Arnall is looking forward to her first overseas tour. / 2

Leading this delegation of screen favourites is the film chief whose gift ~~xxx~~ for organisation ^{WAS REFLECTED IN} ~~xxx~~ the success at Venice. Mr John Davis, President of the British Film Producers association and Managing-Director of the Rank Organisation - accompanied by his wife, Dinah Sheridan. /

Leaving a trail of star-dust across the Airport as they make their way to the plane - the party is bound for Stockholm - the jumping-off place for a lightning tour of four Northern Capitals in eight days. The visit has been planned to co-incide with a special British Film Week ~~organisation in Helsinki~~ ^{in Helsinki} - organised by ~~xxxxxx~~ ^{xxxxxx} and the stars will attend a gala performance. /

So it's all aboard and good luck for grand troupers - in their efforts to help the export drive by winning new markets for British films. /

STAR NEWS FROM NEW YORK, WHERE GRACE KELLY AND HER FIANCEE, PRINCE RAINIER OF MONACO, ATTEND A CHARITY BALL CALLED "A NIGHT IN MONTE CARLO". LUCKY TICKETS ARE DRAWN BY THE NEWLY-ENGAGED COUPLE. THE PRINCE AND THE STAR ARE TO BE SEPARATED FOR A FEW WEEKS - MISS KELLY HAS A FILM TO MAKE IN HOLLYWOOD. /