

News flashes (continued)Cardinal Spellman

Japan: Exchanging his clerical dress for a flying suit and crash helmet, Cardinal Spellman, Archbishop of New York, ^{accepts} ~~accepted~~ the offer of a flight in a high-speed jet.

4 The Cardinal, who is also Roman Catholic Vicar to the U.S. Armed Forces, is making his fifth ~~visit to~~ ^{visit to} troops serving overseas. And on this occasion, he himself ~~was converted - to the wonders of jet travel...~~ ^{BECAME AN ADMIRER OF THE JET AGE.}

Floods

5 Nova Scotia: A brief respite from winter cold brings tragedy to Eastern Canada, when a sudden thaw - accompanied by heavy rain, caused rivers to overflow their banks - flooding the surrounding countryside.

Rampaging waters brought shops and houses crashing to the ground, in a disaster that has already cost millions of dollars worth of damage.

Film party return

6 London Airport: After a successful week's tour of Scandinavia and Finland our film delegation returns. And Jack Hawkins sums up their feelings - about the wonderful welcome they received wherever they went.

SOUND TO END.
