

Eden in U.S.

New York: Making his first visit to America as Prime Minister - Sir Anthony Eden expressed his country's pleasure at the forthcoming talks

SOUND

After flying to Washington in the President's personal plane, Sir Anthony (who is accompanied for the talks by the Foreign Secretary, Mr Selwyn Lloyd) was warmly welcomed by President Eisenhower on the steps of the White House.

Mr Dulles, too, extended ~~the most~~ cordial greetings to the British ~~sixteen~~ statesmen, who have come to make sure that the close ties between our two countries have not been frayed by recent international events.