

News Flashes-

Feb 3rd. '56.

Well Tragedy-

a daily help
 Berkshire-- Sudden tragedy at the <sup>quiet</sup> Royal Oak Hotel, Yattendon, where Mrs Faithfull plunged 60 ft down a disused well, ~~when~~ <sup>when</sup> the kitchen floor collapsed.

Rescuers, <sup>despite</sup> defying tons of masonry and rubble that fell on top of the unfortunate victim, ~~(a daily help at the ancient hotel)~~, made heroic efforts to recover the body- but without success.

A bus shelter, covering the deepest of the many wells that lie beneath the village homes, was quickly roped off.

Russian Houses-

~~XXXXXXXX~~ In Russia, houses are going up to overcome the acute shortage in Leningrad.

Built on the prefabrication system, the dwellings rise at the rate of a floor a fortnight., as a city makes good the ravages of war.

Dutch Princess-

Holland-- Princess Beatrix cycles to school with her sister Princess Margriet. Yet it's a day destined to be a landmark in <sup>PRINCESS BEATRIX'S</sup> ~~her~~ life. ~~FOR~~
~~IT IS HER 18th BIRTHDAY, AND~~
~~at a later ceremony, she was officially created the Crown Princess of the Netherlands.~~

~~is the Princess's last term at the village school~~
~~which is about three miles from the Palace at Soestdijk~~
~~After passing her final examinations, the Heiress to the Dutch throne~~
~~will enter Leiden University, as a student of sociology.~~